

Engineered for Durability, Sustainability and Affordability

Durable

- » Dent-resistant engineered composite skin made with commercial-grade resins
- » Remains stable under extreme hot and cold conditions
- » Weather-tight edges resist swelling and decay because they're made with AuraLast® Wood. Unlike typical, dip-treated wood, AuraLast Wood components are protected from the surface to the core and aren't compromised by sanding or cutting. Only JELD-WEN has AuraLast Wood.

Sustainable

- » ENERGY STAR® qualified designs
- » 45% recycled content, certified by SCS*
- » 96% fewer VOCs during manufacturing of AuraLast Wood components. AuraLast Wood is protected using a proprietary water-based solution, not harmful solvents.

Affordable

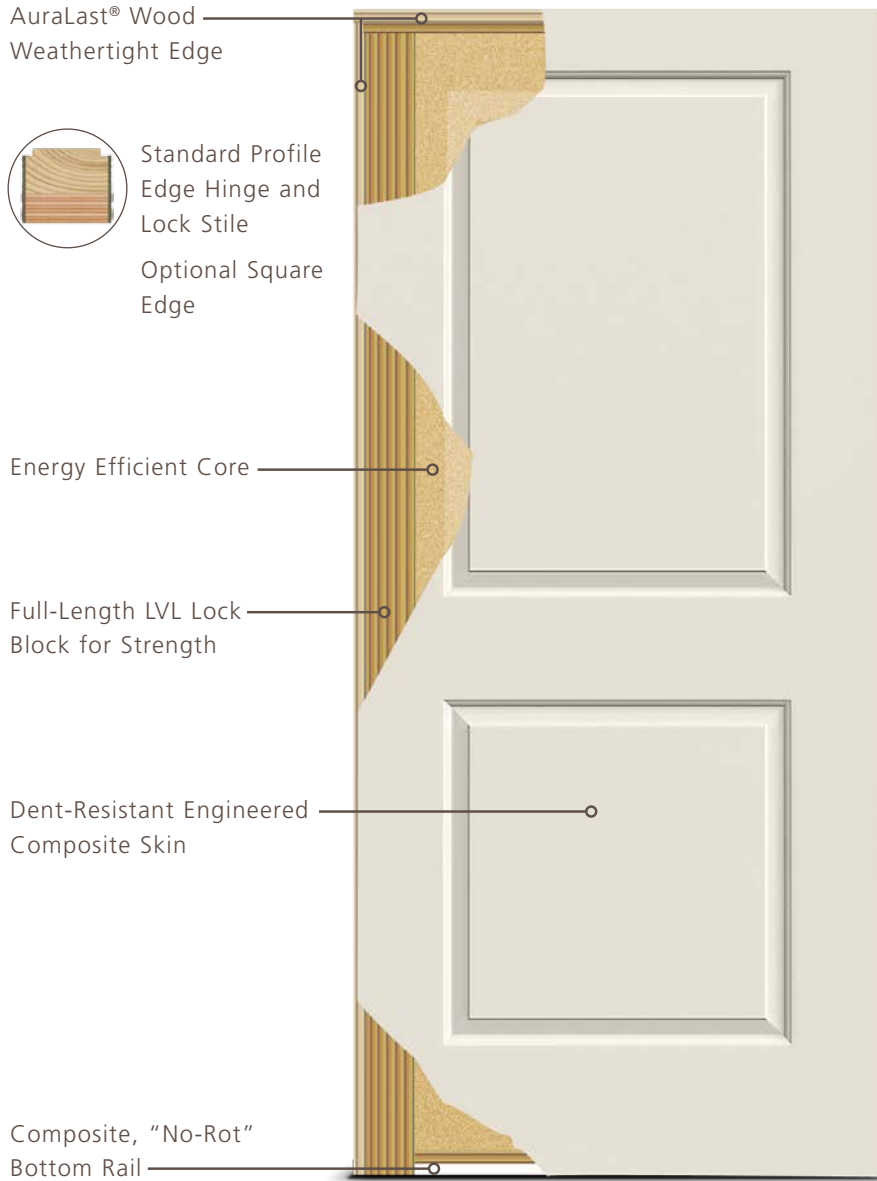

- » More affordable than fiberglass and traditional wood doors

* Recycled wood fiber is pre-consumer. Note recycled content percentages refer to the door slab and do not include the door frame and/or frame components.

Custom Sizes. Select styles available in custom widths and heights for the remodeling market. Contact your JELD-WEN representative for custom sizing information.

*FiberLast Engineered Composite all panel exterior doors are SCS certified to include at least 45% pre-consumer recycled content. Variances in photography, printing and door sizes may cause the glass and panel appearance and finish color as well as the door layout shown to vary from actual product. Please contact your local dealer for more information.
